

Horace Pippin: The Artist of No Man's Land Essay Rubric

	Advanced	Proficient	Basic	Emerging
Argument	Essay has a clear, reasonable, and sophisticated thesis statement.	Essay has a clear and reasonable thesis statement.	Essay has a clear thesis statement.	Essay has an unclear or missing thesis statement.
Historical Evidence	Essay successfully uses at least four identifiable references from the painting or memoir.	Essay successfully uses at least three identifiable references from the painting or memoir.	Essay successfully uses at least two identifiable references from the painting or memoir.	Essay successfully uses one or fewer identifiable references from the painting or memoir.
Accuracy	Essay successfully engages with relevant historical facts without error.	Essay engages with relevant historical facts with minor errors.	Essay engages with relevant historical facts with several significant errors.	Essay has little or no command of relevant historical facts.
Conventions	Essay is coherent with no spelling or grammatical errors.	Essay is coherent with some minor spelling or grammatical errors.	Essay may lack coherence in some places and/or contains grammatical errors that affect readability.	Essay lacks any coherence and/or contains grammatical errors that prevent readability.